How many official visits did you take?

- I took 3 official visits.

What were the most important features of the college you chose, such as division, conference, coaches, teammates, majors, minors, etc.?

- The college I ended up deciding on had a good school for my major. The coaches were all very encouraging and persuading me to join their team. It is an up and coming program. My school moved up to the top 15 in the nation this year.

What were some important things you learned from your visits?

- I learned which team could best represent a family away from home. I also wanted to know I was seen as an important prospect for the team.

How important was academic major in your choice of school?

- I am majoring in business. This was a huge aspect I was searching for because at the end of the day you're there to get your education.

Did the size of the school factor into your decision?

- Yes, I was looking for a medium sized campus. Nothing that would be too strenuous.

When did you begin researching college swim programs?

- Junior year

What advice would you give to rising seniors with regard to recruiting?

- When you visit a campus, ask yourself "Does this feel like home? Can I be successful in my sport as well as in the classroom?"
